

COMM 111Z: PUBLIC SPEAKING

“Nostalgia” Speech

Everyone has a story that takes them back — a moment, place, or experience that sparks a feeling of nostalgia. This brief speech is your opportunity to revisit one of those moments and share it with your audience.

Your task is to deliver a 1–2 minute story that recalls a memory from your past that you remember fondly. The goal is to demonstrate your ability to tell an engaging and entertaining story while applying the skills you’ve learned about effective public speaking — clarity, pacing, expression, and audience connection.

Think of this speech as a short window into your past. It can be lighthearted, sentimental, or funny — the key is to make it memorable and meaningful to your audience.

Some elements your brief speech might include:

- Setting the Scene: Where and when does your story take place? Help your audience visualize it.
- The Memory: What happened, and why does it stand out to you?
- The Emotion: What feelings or reflections come up when you recall this experience?
- The Takeaway: What makes this memory worth sharing — what do you want the audience to feel?

No formal outline is required for this assignment. You may use brief notes, but your story should sound natural and conversational.

Grading (25 points total)

- Content (10 points): Your story should clearly convey a nostalgic moment that is appropriate for the audience and time limit.
- Organization (5 points): The story should have a clear beginning, middle, and end, with smooth transitions.
- Delivery (10 points): Speak with confidence and expressiveness. Maintain eye contact, vary your tone, and engage your audience.
